CONDITIONS OF SALE.

- I. The highest bidder to be the buyer ; and if any dispute arise between bidders, the lot so disputed shall be immediately put up again, provided the auctioneer cannot decide the said dispute.
- II. No person to advance less than 1s. ; above five pounds 2s. 6d., and so on in proportion.
- III. In the case of lots upon which there is a reserve, the auctioneer shall have the right to bid on behalf of the seller.
- IV. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and to pay down 10s. in the pound, if required, in part payment of the purchase-money ; in default of which the lot or lots purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.
- V. The sale of any lot is not to be set aside on account of any error in the enumeration of the numbers stated, or errors of description.
- VI. The lots to be taken away, at the buyer's expense, immediately after the conclusion of the sale ; in default of which Messrs. SOTHEY, WILKINSON & HODGE will not hold themselves responsible if lost, stolen, damaged, or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser. If, at the expiration of Two Days after the conclusion of the sale, the lots are not cleared or paid for, they will then be catalogued for immediate sale, and the expense, the same as if re-sold, will be added to the amount at which they were bought. Messrs. SOTHEY, WILKINSON & HODGE will have the option of re-selling the lots uncleared, either by public or private sale, without any notice being given to the defaulter.
- VII. Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money required and deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited; and if any loss is sustained in the re-selling of such lots as are not cleared or paid for, all charges on such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulters at this sale.

Gentlemen, who cannot attend this Sale, may have their Commissions faithfully executed by their humble Servants,

LOT 78.

NEW ZEALAND CROSS

GRANTED TO

100

Cons. Henare Kepa Te Ahuru, A.C., and dated Nov. 7th, 1868.

This Handsome Decoration is in the form of a silver Maltese Cross, with a six-pointed gold star on each limb; in the centre, encircled by a gold laurel wreath, a convex boss inscribed NEW ZEALAND; the cross is surmounted by a gold crown, which is attached to a crimson riband by a gold-fronted silver bar with V-shaped connection, extremely fine and excessively rare, with original brooch and case 1

* * * Vide extract from "New Zealand Gazette," No. XXVII, of May 11, 1876, reprinted on p. 396 of Tancred's "Historical Records of Medals and Honorary Distinctions," 1891:—

"For his gallant conduct during the attack on the enemy's position at Moturoa on the 7th November, 1868. The storming party, failing to find an entrance, passed round the rear of the work. Conceiving an entrance to the pah was desired, Constable Kepa climbed the palisades of the fortification alone, in doing which he was shot through the lungs, but, nevertheless, walked out of action and brought his arms into camp."

Only two original specimens are known to have been sold by auction (both in these rooms), Dr. Buick's on Nov. 29th, 1907, and Mr. Robert Day's on April 19th of last year.

* * * Sold by order of J. Tobin Bush, Esq. who received the Cross from a gentleman in New Zealand, who knew the recipient and bought it of him.
